BOSTON COLLEGE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

For Fall 2014 the Boston College Graduate School of Social Work is looking to fill the following full-time faculty position openings:

- Tenure-Track Assistant Professor, Migration Research
- Tenure-Track Assistant Professor, Global Health
- Tenure-Track Assistant Professor, Older Adults and Family

Founded 77 years ago, our school enrolls 450 Master's degree students and 40 doctoral students. The school is steadfast in pursuit of rigorous scholarship, preparation of students for competent and compassionate practice, and promotion of social justice. The curriculum is sharply focused to meet the needs of a changing society both domestically and internationally.

We offer concentrations in:

Children, Youth & Families • Global Practice
Health & Mental Health • Older Adults & Families

Boston College is ranked among the best national doctoral universities. It is the largest Jesuit university in North America and holds an endowment that is ranked among the highest for U.S. colleges and universities. Boston College is located in beautiful and historic Chestnut Hill on the edge of the city of Boston. Boston is well known for its many cultural and recreational opportunities. The Boston area's many outstanding universities along with top health and technological institutions are indicators of the stimulating and rewarding opportunities for faculty, students and their families.

Candidates for the GSSW faculty openings must possess a commitment to teaching, research, and scholarly publication, including capacity for obtaining external funding.

Preference will be given to candidates who hold an MSW and Ph.D in Social Work or a related discipline. Cross cultural expertise, international experience and foreign language fluency are desirable.

Inquiries may be directed to:
Ruth McRoy, Ph.D., Search Committee Chair at mcroy@bc.edu or 617-552-4363

For more details on these positions and directions on how to apply visit our website at:

www.bc.edu/socialworkfacultyjobs